Senate Leaders Say Politics Must Yield To Security In 1958

Bridges, Mansfield Agree Bipartisan Decisions Required

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 (AP) — Senate spokesmen for both parties agreed tonight that 1958 will require bipartisan decisions of the highest order to save the nation and world from nuclear destruction.

These decisions, said Sen. Bridges, (R-NH), must reflect American ability "in our finest hour" and "provide for the survival of this nation at all costs."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) added in a separate year-end statement that Congress is prepared to do its full share, with Democrats and Republicans "placing the security of the country ahead of the welfare of their parties."

Mansfield, the Senate's acting Democratic majority leader said, "The months ahead will be decisive ones that may witness new crises which will again strip the thin thread of peace."

New Stage In Foreign Policy?

"Or they may mark the beginning of a new stage in foreign policy. It may be a stage in which the President and the Congress embark on a rational search for ways of reflecting more accurately the attitudes of the people and the faith and confidence which underlie the freedom and greatness of this country, rather than the fears and uncertainties with which we live."

Bridges, influential chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said the "great debate" of 1958 must not be "a glorified soapbox for the promotion of political parties or candidates" but must lead to firm formulation of vital policies "so that we may look back on 1958 as a year of great decision."

Congressional Election Year

In the United States it is a congressional election year, with 32 Senate seats and all 435 seats in the House at stake.

Unless the debate reflects "our abilities in our finest hour," Bridges said, "we may in a few short years arrive at a point where there may never again be the opportunities for debate in the cherished tradition of our nation."

Mansfield called 1957 "a year of frustration, indecision and shock." He said Congress and the President must "face the facts of life as they are, and not as we would wish them to be" and plan for the future "with courage, confidence and hope."

Holiday Safety Plea Is Issued

(By The Associated Press)

Americans got together for hundreds of thousands of gay New Year's Eve parties Tuesday night, some merry-makers mindful and some heedless of heightened holiday accident hazards.

The chief peril, with millions on the move in a general carefree mood of relaxation, was that of fatal traffic errors. It was a time, too, of stepped-up danger from fires and other mishaps as potential victims dropped vigilance.

The National Safety Council estimated that 130 persons would be killed by motor vehicles, many of them unwary pedestrians, during the 30-hour crucial period from 6 p.m. Tuesday and midnight New Year's Day.

The 130 estimate exceeded slightly actual fatalities from accidents of all categories recorded in an Associated Press survey during a nonholiday period from 6 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 to midnight Dec. 11.

In that comparison test period there were 84 traffic deaths, 15 fire fatalities, and 27 deaths in miscellaneous accidents — a total of 126.

Wilson Sees U.S. At Least Soviet Equal

Ex-Defense Chief Says Country Got What It Paid For

DETROIT, Dec. 31 (AP) — The American people got what they paid for in the way of missiles and space travel this year, former Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said today.

He said he blamed the American people as much as Congress for the budget cuts that chopped off money the Defense Department wanted in the year Russia became the first nation with an artificial satellite in outer space.

Still, he said, he does not believe the United States is behind Russia "in the over-all picture" and predicted the United States would win if war broke out today.

Sought 40 Billion Outlay

Wilson, said in an interview at his home in suburban Birmingham, that he asked President Eisenhower for a 40-billion-dollar defense appropriation for the current fiscal year. Eisenhower, he said, sensed the need for a tight budget and recommended only 38½ billion. That eventually was cut to about 36 billion, he said.

About 40 billion dollars will be needed next year, he said.

"I think if we attempt to compete with the Russians actively by promoting too much of a buildup in our own defense we will contribute as much to a force-able war as the Russians," he warned.

The Sputniks, Russia's two earth satellites, and reports of Soviet missile might are being blown out of proportion in this country, he said, adding that Russian strides in outer space are "indicative of the Russians' progress and nothing more."

Willing To Be "Goat"

Since he stepped out as secretary of defense in October, Wilson said he has received letters from private citizens accusing him of bungling the nation's defense preparedness. Wilson held the job nearly five years.

"It's only natural when things go wrong for Americans to look for a fall guy or a goat," he said. "If some of them want me to be the goat, it's all right with me."

"If I were a smart man, I would never have taken the job in the first place," he added.

U. S. Begins 1958 With Population Of 172,800,000

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 (AP) — The United States rings in the New Year with an estimated population of nearly 173 million. More than half of those millions are women.

The Census Bureau said today the New Year's Day population estimate of 172,800,000 compares with 169,800,000 a year ago.

To achieve this year-to-year gain of three million, it figured the population showed a net increase of about 8,200 in every day of 1957.

Women had been estimated to outnumber men in this country by 1½ million at midyear, the bureau said. It indicated this ratio still holds.

In its own special greeting to 1958, the Census Bureau demonstrated its attachment to figures by coming up with a parcel of miscellaneous statistics that add up to one big fact: The country is growing.

It said there was a birth every 7½ seconds during 1957, a death every 20 seconds, an immigrant arriving every 2 minutes, and an emigrant leaving every 20 minutes.

If you juggle these average figures long enough, you find out that the population scored a net gain of one every 11 seconds.

Successful Human Tooth Transplant Is Reported

CHICAGO, Dec. 31 (AP) — The successful transplant of a human tooth from one socket to another elsewhere in the mouth was reported today by two dental scientists.

The researchers extracted a young girl's sprouting wisdom tooth and fitted it into the empty socket of her missing first molar.

The developing root attached itself readily to the new surroundings. Within eight months the socket was well filled with developing new bone and the tooth was firm, they said.

The case demonstrated, the researchers said, that it is possible in carefully selected cases to transplant an expendable tooth from one socket of a patient's mouth to take root and serve a

Tito Urges Summit Parley

Yugo Boss Asks Active Coexistence

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Dec. 31 (AP) — President Tito tonight voiced a New Year's proposal for a highest level disarmament conference of both small and large nations and asserted peaceful coexistence is the only road to peace.

The leader of this independent Communist nation followed closely the Soviet line for peace in his New Year's message to the people of Yugoslavia.

Rejecting the decisions of the NATO summit conference in Paris Tito said it would have been "a wonderful present to mankind for 1958" if the NATO leaders had put forth proposals for disarmament talks on a level higher than foreign ministers.

"12th Hour" For Meeting

"It is the 12th hour for a broad meeting on the highest level," he said. "A new ghost of war looms over mankind and threatens to destroy it."

He called for active coexistence. Coexistence, he added, must replace blocs, because the division of the world in blocs is contrary to the idea of coexistence.

In the Soviet reply to the decisions of the NATO meeting, Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev said Russia would take all the steps necessary to strengthen its defenses.

Khrushchev called for a no-war agreement between NATO and the Warsaw Pact of the Iron Curtain countries, and with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko proposed a summit meeting on disarmament.

Sputniks Not Peace Threat

Tito stood by the Soviet contention that Russian Sputniks should not be interpreted as a war provocation which demands that armed countermeasures be undertaken by the other side.

But he added that some positive, constructive words were pronounced at the NATO conference. He singled out President Eisenhower's announcement he would ask Congress to increase the U. S. aid to underdeveloped countries.

GOC Goes On Reserve Basis

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 (AP) — The nation closes down the active phase of Operation Skywatch — the ground lookout for unidentified airplanes — tomorrow.

Headquarters of the North American Air Defense Command, Colorado Springs, Colo., will transfer the 29 remaining Skywatch filter centers and attached observation posts from 24-hour operational duty to "ready reserve" status at midnight tonight.

This change puts the entire Ground Observer Corps on a reserve basis. All but the filter center areas on the perimeter of the United States were dropped from Skywatch to ready reserve status late in 1956.

The Air Force said the change is the result of increased air defense early warning capabilities but is not to be considered an indication that the GOC has been outmoded.

The command said in a news release that the change in status is rather a means of giving the GOC a rest which it has earned "by buying the country time for establishment of a better, more improved detection capability."

Soviet Press Boasts Of Red Achievements

MOSCOW, Dec. 31 (AP) — The Soviet press rang out the old year today with a salute to Communist achievements of 1957 and predictions the United States will have to change its tactics in 1958.

Pravda and Izvestia—the Communist party and government newspapers—and military publications hailed Soviet accomplishments of the past year and warned that the Communist camp will keep its guard up in 1958.

The Defense Ministry newspaper Soviet Fleet declared: "The remarkable political and economic achievements of the Soviet Union and the Communist camp in 1957 ... and further weakening of the imperialist camp ... will necessitate the re-evaluation of U. S. claims to world supremacy and the means to maintain it."

Treed Plane Freed

Dangling on the end of a 115-foot boom is a 1,800-pound airplane which was cradled overnight in the branches of the tall elm tree to the left of the plane's wing. Two men who were in the aircraft made an 85-foot descent on a fire department ladder. Neither was injured. The men had shot for a landing on the 13th green (foreground) when their plane's engine developed trouble. They were photographing the Manfield Heights Country Club at Cleveland. It took about three hours for the crane to land the plane on the green yesterday. (AP Photofax)

Federal Judge Dismisses Case Against Jencks

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 31 (AP) — U. S. Dist. Judge R. E. Thomason today dismissed the government's case against Clinton E. Jencks, former union official once convicted of filing a false non-Communist affidavit with the National Labor Relations Board.

The judge granted the Justice Department's request to drop the case but declared he still thinks Jencks is guilty of the charges.

At the time Jencks signed the affidavit on which the case was based, he was president of Local 890 of the International Union of Mine, Mill & Smelter Workers in the Silver City area of New Mexico.

He was convicted here in 1955 and appealed. The Supreme Court early this year ordered a new trial. The tribunal held certain FBI reports on witnesses who appeared at the trial should have been made available to the defense for use in cross-examination.

The Justice Department asked that the case be dismissed because "on the available evidence, the government cannot successfully retry this defendant and therefore is reluctantly constrained to make this motion to dismiss the indictment pending against him."

Federal sources have made it plain the real reason behind the motion to dismiss was reluctance of the Justice Department to compel the Federal Bureau of Investigation to open its confidential files.

Judge Thomason made a court-room statement in which he said Jencks was tried by a fair and impartial jury and found guilty.

"This court thought he was guilty then and thinks he is guilty now," the judge said.

He added that Harvey Matusow, the turnabout key witness against Jencks, is in a New York penitentiary, according to his information, after conviction of perjury. He said Jencks "should be in the same kind of institution."

Settlement Averts N.Y. Transit Strike

NEW YORK, Dec. 31 (AP) — A threat of a New Year subway and bus strike that would have hit millions of commuters ended today with agreement on higher wages.

Michael J. Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union, and the Transit Authority announced agreement on a two-year pact providing a 32½ cents an hour package wage increase for 32,700 employees of city-owned subways and bus lines.

The package includes a 25-cent-an-hour actual wage increase spread over the two years. Present subway wages range from $1.79½ to $2.37 an hour. The prevailing wage on city-owned buses is $2.13 an hour.

One Killed, Nine Missing In Crash Of Flying Boat

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 31 (AP) — A four-engine flying boat airliner crashed on landing in Buenos Aires Harbor today, killing a crew member. Officials of Aerolineas Argentinas said nine of 44 passengers were unaccounted for five hours after the crash but that they may have gone home or to private hospitals after being rescued.

An airline spokesman said pursuer Jorge Borges was killed but the six other crew members survived.

Buenos Aires press reports late this afternoon said ten persons went down with the plane as it sank 20 minutes after hitting the water on a crash landing, but officials declined to confirm these reports.

Skelton Suffers Asthma Attack

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Dec. 31 (AP) — Red Skelton was still seriously ill today but his physician said he is making steady improvement after an asthmatic attack that impaired the functioning of his heart for a while.

A fire department rescue squad rushed to the 44-year-old comic's home last night when Mrs. Skelton found him collapsed and gasping for air.

The rescue squad and his personal physician, Dr. G. K. Graham, revived him and he was taken to St. John's Hospital here. His physician described the attack as "acute cardiac asthma, a condition about the same as pulmonary edema, which represents a heart failure, but does not indicate a heart attack."

Mrs. Georgia Skelton said her husband had been worrying about their son, Richard, 9, who is suffering with leukemia, and about an approaching television appearance with Bing Crosby.

World Grets New Year With Revelry, Reverence

(By The Associated Press)

A world made uneasy by Russia's Sputniks shelved its cares long enough today to give 1958 a tumultuous welcome.

Shouts of "Happy New Year" rang out in many tongues as people everywhere greeted 1958 with a curious blend of revelry and reverence.

The Soviet press used the occasion to salute Communist achievements of 1957 and to predict the United States will have to change its tactics.

The United States refused to let the Soviet menace spoil the holiday. Churches across the land held special Watch Night services, and there was much glass-clinking and dancing at public and private parties.

Leak Is Blamed By Ben-Gurion For Resignation

JERUSALEM, Dec. 31 (AP) — Israeli President Izhak Ben-Zvi today sought a replacement for the government of David Ben-Gurion which resigned in a row with leftists over national security.

He summoned the leaders of 10 parties in the Knesset (Parliament) for talks before asking one of them to form a new government.

First on the list for talks was Ben-Gurion's Mafai Socialist party and it was expected Ben-Zvi would ask the former Premier to have another go at it.

Ben-Gurion announced the resignation of his two-year-old Cabinet last night and submitted it to the President today. Ben-Gurion and his Cabinet will stay on as the caretaker government.

Ben-Gurion, 71, told the President he broke up his government because he could give no guarantee the "deplorable acts" of two leftist Achduth Avodah (Labor) party ministers would not be repeated. These acts, he said, brought serious harm to the nation's security and its international standing.

Ben-Gurion was referring to the alleged leak by the two ministers of information about a secret Cabinet decision to send a mission to West Germany to buy "certain equipment vital to the defense of Israel." It never was disclosed what kind of equipment was to be sought.

But some opposition members of Parliament hinted it was submarine equipment. Egypt has been strengthened in recent months by acquisitions of Soviet submarines.

Ben-Gurion charged that the Laborites violated the coalition Cabinet agreement "to preserve complete secrecy in all matters of security and foreign policy discussed in the government."

No Tax Hike Or Reduction Anticipated

Eisenhower Gives Tentative Approval To Record Outlay

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Dec. 31 (AP) — President Eisenhower arrived at "tentative final" figures for the new federal budget today. Indications were that it will be the highest peacetime budget in history, but still balanced.

The spending program for fiscal 1959 is not expected to call for any tax increases, but neither will there be any proposals for tax reductions when the budget message goes to Congress Jan. 13.

Defense spending—to meet Russia's space age challenge — is among the few figures still being ironed out. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty reported.

He added that the President not only expects to have a balanced budget but one that will possibly leave "a slight surplus" at the end of the new fiscal year in June 1959.

Emphasis On Defense

The budget, reported to run about 74 billion dollars, probably will have strong emphasis on military preparedness. The budget for the fiscal year ending next June 30 was 72 billion.

In a page by page rundown on the budget figures, the President spent more than two hours today in a front porch session at his Gettysburg farm with two top advisers — Budget Director Percival Brundage and Dr. James R. Killian Jr., his special assistant on science and technology.

Eisenhower still wants to talk over military aspects of the budget with Secretary of Defense McElroy after he returns to Washington, and the President has scheduled a Cabinet meeting at 9 a.m. Friday morning, Hagerty said.

National security also will be the keynote of the President's State of the Union message to Congress Jan. 9. That message has been streamlined this year to a half-hour speech, geared to items the President considers of top priority. Eisenhower will deliver it in person, the White House announced.

Education Aid

The nation's military position "and the President's recommendations on how to improve that position" will be included in the address, Hagerty said, as well as foreign policy and related economic issues.

The new billion-dollar education program, with its emphasis on science and mathematics, also will be part of the message.

The bulk of the President's domestic program will be covered this year in the budget message, Hagerty said, so that priority issues can be emphasized in the State of the Union message.

Chavigny Gets Life Sentence

CLEARWATER, Fla., Dec. 31 (AP) — Maurice Chavigny was sentenced today to life imprisonment for the slaying of Brig. Gen. Wilbur R. R. McReynolds and the general's wife.

The dapper 44-year-old Frenchman took the sentence calmly. He said nothing.

Chavigny was convicted Dec. 19 of second-degree murder in both slayings. The sentence could have been from 20 years imprisonment to life in each case.

Circuit Court Judge John U. Bird directed that he serve a life sentence in each case.

There was no argument for mercy from defense counsel before the sentencing and no indication of an appeal.

The retired general, 64, and his wife, 61, were shot to death at their home in an exclusive residential section of St. Petersburg April 3.

The French soldier of fortune had been a friend of the McReynolds for a number of years. He had lived at their home for 17 months, serving as their chauffeur but still on terms of close friendship with both of them.

Speaking broken English and torn by sobs, Chavigny told the jury that McReynolds shot his wife and he then killed McReynolds.

Chavigny said he had become despondent because his visa had not been renewed and he was to be deported, so he planned to leave and kill himself.

Cross-Section Of Marylanders Gives Views On '58 Politics, Taxes, Baseball

BALTIMORE, Dec. 31 (AP)—What brought these responses: Gov. McKeldin: "Sen. J. Glenn Beall's outstanding services to his nation and his state assure, I believe, his reelection to the United States Senate. The excellent condition of the State indicates the election of the Republican nominee for governor (whomever that may be) . . . the time has come when we must increase the rates of those two taxes. At the moment, I can see only the Orioles and the Red Sox in a close race for the pennant toward the season's end. The final winner is not clear, but I am very hopeful."

Madam Mary, professional seer: "I believe Mayor (Thomas) D'Alesandro will be the next governor. He is a good man and we gypsies know him. George Mahoney will win the election for Senate. Taxes will not go up next year. Taxes we are paying too much already. . . . The Orioles will end up in second place. . . ."

Hyman Pressman, lawyer: "J. Millard Tawes will be the next governor and George P. Mahoney will go into the Senate. I fervently hope there will be no rise in the State sales tax or income taxes. . . . The Orioles will finish in fifth place."

Real Gems, Not Costume Kind, Found In Car

BALTIMORE, Dec. 31 (AP)—What State Police mistakenly thought was costume jewelry when they left it sitting in a public garage today turned out to be nearly $25,000 worth of gems stolen last Sunday from a Washington couple.

Yesterday, State Trooper Thomas Mullins spotted a stolen car on U.S. 29, north of Simpsonville in Howard County. He arrested the 27-year-old Baltimore man driving it and stored the car in a Simpsonville garage to await its rightful owner.

Two suitcases containing what was thought to be the costume jewelry, were left in the car.

Baltimore detectives took custody of the driver last night and something which apparently came out of their questioning of the man led them to make another trip to Simpsonville to inspect the car and the suitcases.

Inside they found the gems, including a platinum bracelet mounted with diamonds and emeralds and valued at $9,500, and a diamond and sapphire brooch worth about $8,000.

Capt. George H. Mintiens, chief of Baltimore detectives, said the jewelry matched, item by item, the gems reported stolen by Mr. and Mrs. James B. Watriss of Washington. They had left the suitcases in their unlocked car while they visited friends at Stevenson, Baltimore County, last Sunday.

Mintiens said there is no question the jewelry belongs to the Watrisses who will be asked to make positive identification.

No charges were placed immediately against the driver of the car from which the jewels were recovered.

15 Autos Destroyed In Clarksburg Fire

CLARKSBURG, Dec. 31 (AP)—Fire Chief J. J. Martin said unofficially today that he did not believe the loss from a blaze which gutted the Muntzing Motor Co. here would exceed $100,000.

Fireman Frank Daugeaux, 65, died of a heart attack while battling the flames. He would have been eligible for retirement next May.

Muntzing's loss, largely covered by insurance, included 15 automobiles and trucks and about $15,000 worth of parts, Martin said.

The building was owned by Dr. R. B. Taylor. It was a two-story brick structure with a basement.

The fire was discovered about 11:30 p.m. yesterday, although telephone officials said they had been having trouble with lines in the vicinity of the garage since about 8:30 p.m.

Firemen managed to bring the blaze under control in about an hour. They confined the fire to the one structure, although the adjoining Shahan's Garage owned by North Pole Ice Co. suffered some water damage.

Jimmy Fund Drive Raises $580,085.51

BOSTON, Dec. 31 (AP)—Ted Williams, general chairman of the Jimmy Fund Drive, announced today that $580,085.51 was raised in this year's campaign and turned over to the Children's Cancer Research Foundation, Inc.

Williams, the Boston Red Sox outfielder who won the American League batting title last season at the age of 39, called the announcement "the greatest thing that has happened to me this year."

Williams thanked all leaders in the Jimmy Fund Drive for their "untiring efforts" and noted that the Boston Red Sox and the Milwaukee Braves paid all the expenses for their exhibition game for the Jimmy Fund.

He said that trustees of the Children's Cancer Research Foundation—the official title of the Jimmy Fund—again made personal contributions "which more than exceeded the expenses involved in the campaign."

Blank Draft Cards, Date Stamp Stolen

BALTIMORE, Dec. 31 (AP)—Police today sought thieves who took 30 blank, Selective Service cards and a date stamp after breaking into a draft board office.

The stamp bore the words "Draft Board No. 11" and police theorized the articles may have been taken by minors who wanted bogus identification to obtain alcoholic beverages.

Unexpected Business Boom Puzzles Broadway

NEW YORK, Dec. 31 (AP)—There's no business like show business on Broadway right now.

The Great White Way is booming like nothing seen in many a year—with people even storming the box offices of the film houses, with or without stage shows.

Show people themselves, delighted as they are by the clink of coin, can't figure it out. Even third-rate movies are doing business, said one puzzled theater man.

Among the famous showplaces which really hit a bonanza the past few days were the Paramount and Criterion on Times Square, and the renowned Radio City Music Hall in Rockefeller Center.

Since last Wednesday the Paramount has had people—mostly teen-agers—lined up for blocks waiting to get in.

Yesterday at noon an estimated 11,000 were strung out in a line snaking around blocks.

At the Criterion, adults seeking tickets for the morning performance yesterday broke out of line and stormed the box office. Hundreds had to be turned away from the day's performances.

Radio City Music Hall, featuring its traditional Christmas pageant, appeared headed for a record seven-day box office take of $225,000.

Other movie houses in mid-Manhattan reported top business also.

300 MPH Winds At 60 Mile Height

FT. MONMOUTH, N. J., Dec. 31 — The Army said today rocket tests show that winds of 300 miles an hour are common at altitudes of 60 miles.

The Army signal engineering laboratories here announced completion of a series of five summer rocket firings to explore high altitude weather as part of the International Geophysical Year.

The firings were carried out at Ft. Churchill, Manitoba, Canada, using Aerobee rockets loaded with 19 high explosive grenades each.

The grenades were ejected from the nose cones at preset intervals up to 60 miles. The explosions were picked up by delicate sound devices on the ground.

The Army explained that the time it took for the sound of each blast to reach the ground gave an accurate indication of winds and temperatures.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	2 diamonds	Pass
4 spades	Pass	3 clubs	Pass
5 hearts	Pass	5 no trump	Pass
6 spades	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Eight of hearts. South displayed a flashy, but nevertheless sound technique, as he left nothing to chance in bringing home today's slam contract in a recent tournament.

The bidding followed natural lines for the first round. After South made a jump rebid to game, there was little doubt in North's mind that South's suit was solid and that some slam should be reached. So he tenorized further with a bid of five clubs. When South cue bid in hearts, North's five no trump bid requested partner to contract for slam in either no trump or a suit. South chose spades.

Against the slam, West decided to lead the eight of hearts, top of the unbid suit. The trick was won with the ace, and declarer drew five rounds of trumps, discarding one heart, three diamonds and one club from dummy.

At this point South had the contract cinched regardless of the location of the adverse cards. He led the nine of clubs and when West played low, he ducked in dummy and exposed his hand. If the nine by chance should hold, the conflict was over. If the nine crove out the king, declarer had 12 tricks, and if the nine lost to East's jack, East would find himself in a position where he must yield a trick to declarer with any return, for dummy now held tenace positions over East in hearts, diamonds and clubs.

The unsuccessful declarers, after drawing trumps, attempted to develop the diamond suit by finessing the queen. When it lost, East was able to get out with a diamond and wait for his other trick.

We greet you, we thank you, we wish you good cheer, today, tomorrow and throughout the New Year!

Good health and good luck to all.

Secrets Of Charm

New Year Resolutions

"Down with the rosemary, and so
Down with the baies and mistletoe.
Down with the holly, ivie, all
Wherewith we drest the Christmas Hall."

Thus goes the old poetic tribute titled, "Twelfth Night." By tradition, it falls 12 days after Christmas or Jan. 6th. By then, or even before, one is ready to shake the holiday feeling and settle down to a new post-holiday routine. The Christmas decorations are all neatly put away and the house is swept clean of fallen pine needles.

Any approaching New Year is a good time for us to "clean house" personally. It's so easy to slip and let so many things go when you're extra busy with a heavy schedule. So, make a list of resolutions for 1958. Here's a start-fo, you. Let's head it: I RE-SOLVE TO —

1. Set aside one day a month as "my day." I'll schedule no social activities and a minimum of chores. I'll aim for a change of pace — doing something that appeals to me — reading, engaging in some hobby or sport, or following a strict beauty routine.

2. Improve my posture — practicing better sitting, standing, walking.

3. Never wear chipped nail polish.

4. Exercise daily.

4. Cut down on candies and sweets.

6. Get plenty of sleep so my looks and disposition perk up.

7. Get a dental check every 6 months; a physical exam, once a year.

8. Take a 10-minute rest period in a darkened room before dinner, with feet elevated and cotton

Start at once to improve yourself and make beauty a habit.

pads, soaked in witch hazel, over eyelids.

9. Massage scalp for at least 2 minutes and brush hair at least 100 strokes nightly.

10. Apply cream to area around eyes daily.

11. Sit in front of mirror, one night a week, for 15 minutes and practice new ways of applying make-up.

12. Give myself a facial, once weekly.

13. Remove superfluous hair from legs and face when needed.

14. Get a permanent and new hair-do.

15. Apply hand lotion after washing hands.

16. Be charming to my family, friends and everyone I may meet.

17. Make an effort to smile as often as possible.

TOMORROW: A Good Start.
YOUR BEAUTY DIET—Whether you want to gain, lose or remain the same—YOUR BEAUTY DIET will provide you with a pattern of safe, laboratory-tested menus that can be followed by the entire family according to each individual's needs. YOUR BEAUTY DIET is a way of eating, not starving. Write to Secrets of Charm in care of this newspaper and enclose 10c in coin,

A Good Start

A good breakfast can make or break your day. Go without one and you can be the crankiest woman in the office.
Eat the right breakfast and you'll be able to watch the day progress in a peaceful manner.
It prevents a mid-morning headache and most certainly insures you against the 10 o'clock slump.
What do you consider a good breakfast? The juices come first
... the favorites being orange,
grapefruit and tomato juice.
These give you the vitamin C needed for your daily quota. If other fruits are substituted then be sure to include a vitamin C-rich fruit at one of the other meals.

The protein foods—eggs, meat, milk, poultry, fish, cheese, peanut butter—are those that give this first meal its staying power.

The third basic food group includes cereals and breadstuffs which come in great variety.
Whole grain cereals and breads furnish the most nutrients. However, hot breads, such as pancakes, waffles, muffins and corn bread when made with enriched flour, give nourishment as well as variety.

Beverage naturally means milk for the teen-ager, but grown-ups should always have a glass along with their coffee or tea. If not, pour generously over a cereal.
Or, make hot chocolate.

Variety in your meals can be unlimited. For a better breakfast pattern, as well as luncheon and dinner patterns, send for our booklet, "Your Beauty Diet."

Mail request to this column, 7c in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Cold War To Continue, But Lower Cost Of Living Predicted For U. S. In 1958

(Continued from Page 24) from buying non-dividend-paying stocks at $5.00 a share or under. These will be the first to reach a buying level. If you are to buy these low-priced stocks, you should seek companies without too much cumulative preferred stock outstanding. This is the opposite of the "preferred" recommendation in paragraph 43!

44. The large fortunes made in the stock market have come from buying non-dividend-paying stocks at $5.00 a share or under. These will be the first to reach a buying level. If you are to buy these low-priced stocks, you should seek companies without too much cumulative preferred stock outstanding. This is the opposite of the "preferred" recommendation in paragraph 43!

45. Large bank balances will continue to be a good investment in 1958. Many savings banks are now paying 3% to 3½% interest. These balances, however, should not be looked upon as permanent investments, but rather as a means of enabling you to have cash available when common stocks reach a low level. This time may NOT come in 1958. Here again, much depends upon President Eisenhower's condition.

46. Although many corporations are interested in atomic energy, electronics, rare metals, and other growth industries will become more prosperous and profitable to investors, some of these new companies will be wiped out. Hence, investors should be very careful in connection therewith.

47. Utility stocks should hold their own with regard to dividends and marketability. Electric power will always be in demand.

48. Most railroad stocks should be avoided. Most passenger business is now being operated at a loss. Trucks, buses, airplanes, and private automobiles will ultimately force the government to take over the railroads. In the meantime, the securities of the long-haul railroads, which specialize in heavy freight, will be the best to own. The short-haul roads should be avoided by investors.

49. Notwithstanding the above, we cannot now become panicky in general. I cannot forecast disarmament in 1958. It appears to me now, however, that the present race in guided missiles, atomic underwater navies, surprise satellites, and other tremendously destructive military equipment could ultimately rob us of our freedom and turn us back to slavery unless disarmament becomes a serious goal. The Sputniks should hasten either another military world war or the elimination of world wars.

50. Speaking realistically, the hope of the United States and the world depend upon our spiritual relationships. Only as we grow spiritually, along with our material growth and military power, can the world be kept in balance. Therefore, my final appeal is for the support of all churches of all denominations and their ministers, priests, and rabbis who are carrying the torch of righteousness.

County Board Opposes Gas Rate Increase

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday adopted a resolution formally protesting the application of the Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company for a rate increase.

The resolution points out that the gas rate increase request is the fourth such request made by the utility in the past five years.

It was also cited that the Public Service Commission granted a rate increase of 22 per cent in 1953 designed to produce increased revenues in the amount of $400,000, followed by a second overall increase of 14 per cent in 1954 of $366,000 and in 1956 the third increase of between $98,000 and $120,000 in added revenues.

The resolution states that a brochure prepared in connection with the 1956 application reports that "utility regulation calls for rate-making to protect consumers."

On behalf of the residents of the county, the county board states that the newest rate increase request is "totally unwarranted" and the PSC is urged to consider the protection of the consumers in connection with the application.

The commissioners urges the PSC to consider the C&A application with a view to "protecting the consumers" rather than guaranteeing to "those whose savings are invested in the utility" a return on that investment irrespective of the operating practices of the management of the petitioning utility.

Toward Federal Drivers' Licenses

"A man drives as he lives," has become a cliché among the analysts of auto accidents. In other words, the greatest single cause of highway mishaps is the personal equation, rather than the condition of the car, or the character of the road, or legal regulations.

So the driver most to be feared is the one who resents all controls in his life, or takes a change in everything, or gives full rein to a sense of power whenever he feels it, or habitually loses his head under even slight strain.

This type has been proved to become less a menace in those areas where traffic regulations are enforced rigorously and drivers' licenses revoked for cause mercilessly. Yet it has been proved also that many a serious auto accident is caused by drivers who only occasionally throw restraints, or fall under the influence of alcohol, or nod at the wheel, or take chances.

Early in the 1958 session of Congress, says Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.), he will introduce a bill for a federal commission to collect and analyze adequately all possible data on highway accidents. If the analysis warranted, federal drivers' licenses—issued only after real tests and suspended or revoked for frequent bad driving—could be required of all interstate drivers.

Then there's the proposal to inflict on reckless drivers—instead of money fines meaning little to the well-to-do or tickets disregarded by out-of-state drivers—a period of immediate detention. It is argued that when a driver, and his car, have been sequestered two, four or six hours (according to the severity of the offense), he'll be more prone to think twice the next time before taking all manner of chances to save 30 minutes on the road.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Years Of Uncertainty

NATO is an association of states for self-defense; it is not a union of states; it is not a sovereign. Unlike the United Nations, NATO is a product of the American containment policy, but what is NATO's line? If NATO, SEATO, the Bagdad Treaty countries are in agreement, what is the line of containment?

This is the essential question of 1958. It was not answered in 1957, as far as the public knows. Soviet Russia's advance has been so swift, so sure, so dramatic that it could not be answered with assurance. But a line, how can a target be set?

For instance, during the Truman Administration, whereas the Russians were contained in Europe, they broke out into Asia where they took half of Korea, half of Vietnam, neutralized Burma, limited the freedom of action of India. Today, the Communists are conducting a full-fledged revolution in Indonesia which can do more than the Bandung Conference to weaken American influence in Asia and Africa. In fact, the Cairo Conference of Asian and African nations, now in session, hardly is noticed in our newspapers; yet upon such a conference may depend war or peace, survival for many nations, including the United States.

The United States is entirely to blame for the debacle of order in Indonesia. It was American policy to insist upon Indonesian self-government, which meant driving out our allies, the Dutch. The Indonesians were neither politically nor economically ready for self-government. As long as the Dutch were willing to remain to conduct the business for the Javanese and other Indonesians, the economy of these rich islands was maintained. The Communists spread their influence, particularly among the Chinese who as a mercantile middle class constitute a large population in Indonesia. When Sukarno admitted Communists into his government, he cut his own political throat. At any rate, he is leaving the country, for his health, while the Dutch are fleeing the area and the estates are being confiscated and neglected—a condition which may require years to correct.

Is Indonesia outside the line of our interest? What if Red China creates satellite states as Soviet Russia created satellite states, will it not be possible for Russian and Chinese Communists to squeeze us out of Asia, as we have been squeezed out of Eastern Europe and as the Russians plan to squeeze us out of Moslem countries?

It is impossible to believe that this question was not discussed at NATO. Surely, the Dutch and the French brought it up and asked for some kind of decision. Surely, Turkey brought it up because of developments in Egypt and Syria—developments which Greece can ignore as little as Turkey.

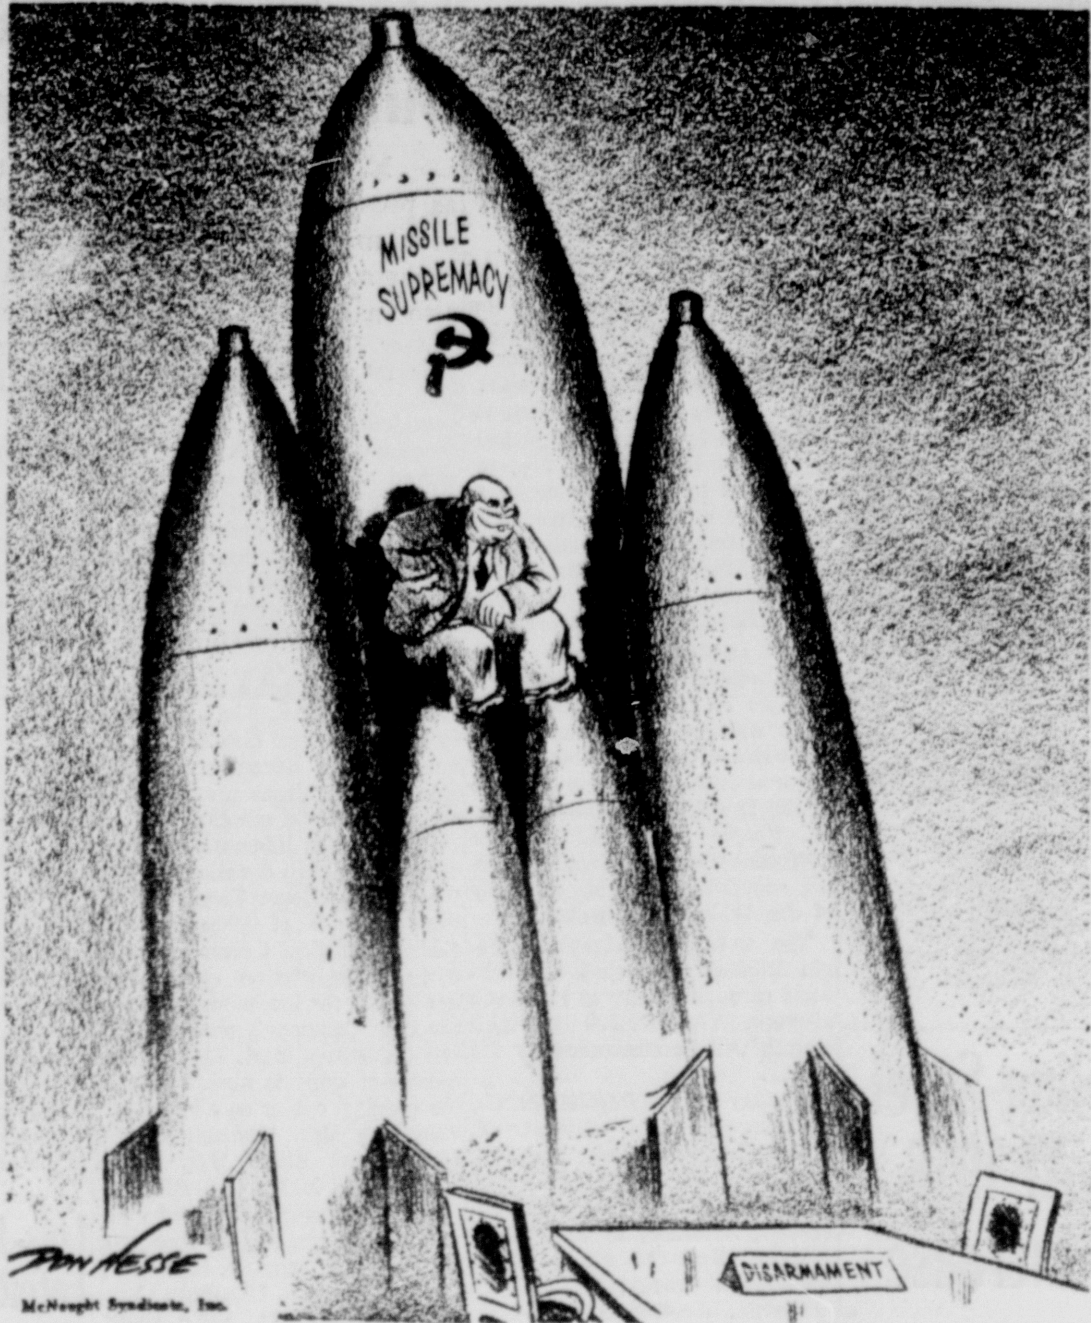

And what was said about these questions? Has a line been drawn? At Yalta, Stalin tried to divide the world with Franklin D. Roosevelt. Prior to World War II, Stalin and Hitler had divided the world between them in the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact. Khrushchev apparently has some such idea in mind, namely, that he and Eisenhower, if they met face to face, could save the world from a destructive war by dividing it between Soviet Russia and the United States.

Then we could be partners with Russia in the enslavement of free peoples to either our yoke or Khrushchev's. After all, we did, during World War II, force large bodies of Russian defectors to go back to Russia to be killed and we have ignored the murder of the Hungarians after our broadcasts had encouraged them to believe that if they struck for freedom, we would be there to support them. We were not there. Apart from some speeches in the United Nations, we have done nothing for the Hungarians. Why then should those who seek freedom among the satellites ever trust us? Why should our milk-toast diplomats not agree to a division of the world if that will look like peace and keep the President in the illusion of peace?

It all comes back to the word, line. At any rate, Harry Truman, being of a simple nature, knew that you draw a line and tell a fellow that if he dares to cross it, he goes at his own risk. Our present rulers, being more complex, dare not draw such a line, lest their bluff be called.

So they talk platitudes while time's a-wasting. But platitudes do not win wars.

Negotiating In The Throne Room

Moscow 'Uses' U. S. Press, Censors Reporters

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 — The American press and radio are unintentionally the best instruments of propaganda the Soviet Union has in the world—and the Soviet government, with deliberate intent, is the worst enemy and most persistent saboteur of American news that the United States faces in the world.

This absence of reciprocity was conspicuously illustrated by the propaganda conference of hand-picked representatives of Afro-Asian nations held at Cairo last week by the Communists. The American press and radio spread widely the distortions uttered there. They were in many instances given first-page display. Here and there were some pointed comments on the editorial pages warning that the conference was Communist-inspired. There was, of course, some important news in the Cairo Conference itself, but the contrived nature of the Soviet domination of the whole thing and the behind-the-scenes activities were not exposed on the same pages that told of the Afro-Asian Conference.

Had any American or European official uttered such a criticism, it would have been widely printed on the news pages, too. The Soviet government gets away with many things like this, including a strict censorship over what American correspondents send out of Moscow. No protest against this censorship has been made in a long, long time by any national organization of news writers or editors in America or elsewhere. So apparently the Soviet government feels it can go ahead with its censorship without alienating world opinion.

The Moscow government, moreover, selects carefully what correspondents it will let enter the Soviet Union. Data about each prospective correspondent must be submitted in advance and the Communists make up their own minds who will be admitted. They give no reasons for rejections. Likewise, only certain newspapers and magazines are favored and, no matter what the scope of the publication has been in covering for many years news from the capitals of the world, the Communists discriminate against it according to their own whims.

Less than a dozen American newsmen are permitted to reside in Moscow all the year around. They are restricted in their travel and are not permitted to send out news that the government doesn't like. There was a time when some editors in this country felt that Soviet newsmen shouldn't be allowed to have certain privileges in the press galleries of Congress unless all Americans who applied had the same privileges in Moscow—a sort of reciprocity. But this doctrine seems to have been abandoned. There is no explanation as to why the Soviet system of suppressing news, and its refusal to let radio stations and newspapers in Russia print the statements of the American government, is not subject to persistent criticism in the United States.

Much is being said nowadays in America about the importance of reaching the minds of the Soviet people so as to avert a future war, but the principal means of

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

We're starting 1958 as clean as a nurse's cap. We admit we still have some pessimists who are afraid everything is going to be all right.

Biggest thing we have to remember is government is not a one-man street car. Let's start the bi-partisan year right by listening to what the other fellow has to say after we say it.

Adlai's guided orbit proved beyond the slightest corroboration that the Democrats have a voice in government. It runs the chromatic scale from sotto to whatto.

The Democrats rate a six-mike spokesman on more than a coat-to-coat hookup. It was John Knox of Scotland who demanded a voice in his country's affairs by reason of being born within same.

Adlai, Averell and Estes are all born within same. They are entitled to their day in court. Why should everything be as one-way as Niagara?

The percentage of political population should average two Spratts to a platter.

But that spare-room on the doghouse is no legal voting residence.

Let's hear what Adlai has to say. You don't have to make a rubber stamp of it.

Good Health And New Year's Resolutions

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Most New Year's resolutions are based on past experience. But we face new threats to life or health as our working and living environment changes with each passing year. Sputnik is a good example. Last New Year's day, few dreamed of what it would do to our way of thinking. Satellites are a reality now and should be incorporated into our daily thinking and living, and we must apply newly acquired knowledge wisely.

Resolutions involving rules of health are popular at this season. But good health should be part and parcel of everyday living and need no special consideration at the beginning of each year. Men and women who smoke or drink too much should not set a date like January 1 to quit.

Better results are obtained by waiting for a more opportune time when you have a good reason or excuse for quitting.

Life never is simple or easy. Tension seems to be our No. 1 problem and the high incidence of heart trouble, hypertension, ulcers, and nervous disorders is cited as evidence. But the majority of Americans have no real reason to worry. In pioneer days, the farmer never went out to plow without taking along a rifle for protection; the women on the farm lived in fear that the entire family would be wiped out by Indians.

What are we worrying about? Is it atomic bombs, insecurity, health? We might resolve at this time to worry less and to develop a calm and orderly outlook about our ability to handle our problems. We have the scientific knowhow to build security and power. Our strength is on a personal basis; in a democracy, success rests with the integrity and efficiency of its individuals.

We should resolve to acquire more wisdom, morality, and self-discipline. Many suffer from lack of a common purpose and a sound state of mind. We must resolve to gain more confidence without being too aggressive.

Americans are said to have a tremendous reserve of courage, generosity, and heroism that are brought forth when disaster strikes. It is unfortunate that these qualities are not evident at all times. As individuals, we can change our outlook from pessimism to optimism. This is easier to do when we are in good health.

DIET AND DEAFNESS

D. W. writes: Someone told me she heard on TV of a woman who regained her hearing by going on a special diet. Since my growing deafness is jeopardizing my job, I'd like to learn what the diet contains.

REPLY: So would I. Impaired hearing is unrelated to diet, hence I'm skeptical. The only exception is the rare occasion when a person is allergic to certain foods. In these instances, the eustachian tubes become blocked whenever the allergen is consumed.

J. Y. writes: What causes a Charley horse in a leg muscle?

1958 Will Be Crucial Year For Making War Or Building Peace

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, PREDICTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR — 1958 may be one of the most crucial years in history. It may see the tide turn toward peace with Russia—or start a deterioration of our relations toward war. Russia for the first time is now able to call the shots. Power lies in the Kremlin's hands. American prestige around the world has sunk to a low unequalled since our Civil War. In Europe there is frustration with American leadership bordering on disgust. Even in Latin America our once staunch friends are drifting away. Whether 1958 sees an upturn for peace or downturn for war will depend chiefly on whether Russia really wants peace. She has the bargaining cards in her hands—as will be shown by the Gaither Report—if ever published. American ability to pull in our belts, put missiles ahead of Edsels, will be important, but not as important as our diplomatic skill. The Kremlin's temptation will be to move now when the odds are heavy on its side. Russia would win a preventative war today. Two years ago she couldn't. But if the Kremlin sees the United States going ahead with missile bases in West Europe, pressure could be heavy in the Soviet Presidium to move while it has the upper hand. No one can predict what will happen on this front in 1958, except that Russia has the decision.

WEATHER TO VETERANS — 1958 will see some radical attempts to control the weather, including a plan to sprinkle oil on the waves in advance of hurricanes, then light the oil to change or modify the hurricane... postage stamps at long last will be increased. In 1958 you'll be paying four cents instead of three for a stamp... there will be no tax cut in 1958... Congressman Wilbur Mills, new chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, will try to abolish the $50 tax exemption for stock dividends which he says helps the stock market. He'll propose a $600 personal exemption instead. Veterans will be among the chief sufferers as a result of missile expenditures. Veterans hospitals will be cut, plus pension benefits. The Administration will argue that the USA is becoming a nation of veterans, therefore they don't deserve special treatment... Alaska will become the 49th State... Benson's plan to end family farming will fail; also his plan to reduce price supports for wheat, cotton, corn, tobacco, peanuts, rice. The farm budget will continue at $5,000,000,000 and farm surpluses will be about the same... despite inflation there'll be no salary increases for civil servants—except for scientific and military personnel... Pan American Airways will start operating 600-mile-and-hour jet airliners in 1958, thus beginning the first jet service for the American public. Airplane fares will go up 15 per cent.

Will Ike resign in 1958?—Empty Christmas stockings in Washington was Vice President Nixon's. One month ago it looked as if he might be in the White House or else given vitally important new powers... but Ike is now determined to stay on, come what may, and the palace guard has pushed Nixon off the White House threshold. They won't even let his foot in the door, have tried to create doubts in Eisenhower's mind as to why Dick spent the entire day in the White House, waiting, when Ike suffered his latest illness... Nixon therefore will not assume new power to expedite the missile program. Eisenhower will stay on through 1958 unless and until he suffers another stroke or heart attack.

Will there be a depression?—The economic strength of the USA remains our chief ace-in-the-hole. We have lost out in science, are losing out in education, military power, atomic energy and hydroelectric power. But our production genius to turn out tremendous quantities of goods remain a great asset in the eyes of the world... as of today, steel production is down 50 points, unemployment is up, Chrysler laid off 60,000 workers, Ford 20,000 at Christmas time. Auto dealers have 800,000 unsold cars. It seems certain we have passed the peak of a 17-year boom. Will this deteriorate into a serious depression? Answer is that George Humphrey's tight money, deflation policies are now being scrapped—in toto. No trace of them will remain. The Administration is resorting to government pump-priming—unabashed. The $177,000,000 for public housing, which Ike scolded Congress for passing, has been dumped into the economy to relieve a serious construction slow-down. More than $2,000,000,000 extra will be tossed in for missiles—if Congress will agree... money rates will also be easier... this should have an effect on the economy by midsummer, but business will suffer the worst recession since World War II this winter and early spring.

What will your dollar buy in 1958?—A dollar today is worth just 22 cents less than in 1948. Its purchasing power has dropped six cents in the last two years alone... with more money pumped into the economy without wage-price controls, the dollar will be even less. 1958 will be a hard year on white-collar workers, pensioners, those depending on life insurance policies.

Labor in 1958—Jimmy Hoffa will probably beat the government's attempts to put him behind bars. He will then show his defiance of AFL-CIO leaders by waging war against their strikes. Hitherto the Teamsters have cooperated with other strikers. They can be the greatest strike-breakers or strike-enforcers through the power of delivering goods to factories. In 1958 for the first time, they will definitely refuse to recognize AFL-CIO picket lines. This will make some strikes almost unenforceable... Labor leaders claim the best way to cure a business slump is by increasing buying-power through higher wages. In 1958, therefore, big unions will defy the recession and start a series of strikes, one of the most important being in the auto industry. Detroit may be tied up for weeks. Employers will retaliate, cutting overtime and bonuses, will slash non-union salaries.

Atlas To Rescue

By Henry Cathcart

WASHINGTON — According to some theories, the firing of the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile at Cape Canaveral was timed to the NATO conference in Paris, and news of the successful launching could not have come at a better time.

The first successful firing of the Air Force ICBM had been expected on the cape for several weeks before it actually went soaring into the air.

It was delayed repeatedly until after President Eisenhower arrived in Paris and the vital NATO talks got under way. The big U. S. objective was to get permission for setting up missile bases in Europe.

America's prestige was at a new low as a result of the failure of the Vanguard satellite project Mr. Eisenhower's missile plan was meeting formidable resistance.

Then, the button was pushed and the Atlas was launched.

The position at NATO was changed, and the American plan was approved.

DISARMAMENT — The U. S. agreed under pressure from NATO allies to seek renewal of disarmament talks with Russia, but American officials have little hope that any new discussions will produce an accord.

They feel that further disarmament talks will bog down on the same old issue that wrecked the London conference—Russia's refusal to agree to an adequate inspection system.

U. S. diplomats feel that the Soviets' recent call for a ban on nuclear weapons tests was strictly a propaganda gambit aimed at wooing the support of the uncommitted Asian bloc of nations.

The only reason the U. S. agreed to try further disarmament talks was to appease the western European nations who were balking at allowing missile bases on their territory.

The concession by the U. S., however, also resulted in an agreement in principle on a plan for placing American atomic stockpiles in Europe.

SCIENTISTS — Youthful scientists in the government are caustic about the current furor over the need for training more scientists to regain for the U. S. the first place in research and knowledge.

They point out that all the emphasis is being put on training more young men for scientific work without making certain that they will be able to get jobs when they get out of school.

Recent occurrences are cited to bolster their unhappiness. One is a budget bureau order—quickly rescinded once it was made public—holding up again long-delayed pay raises for top government researchers.

The scientists feel that, no matter how quickly the order was pulled back, it betrays a basic feeling that scientists can be pushed around.

The second incident concerned a group of young engineers and physicists in New York who hired a hotel room near a scientific meeting to "sell" their services to companies.

They reported they had been bounced out of aircraft research jobs when defense orders were cut back. They added that this problem is widespread, because research is usually first to feel the effects of any cutback.

Two more top officials reportedly are planning to make their exit soon from the Eisenhower administration.

According to reports circulating in the capital, both Deputy Defense Secretary Donald A. Quarles and Under Secretary of State Christian Herter will resign.

In both bases, it is said, the men are disappointed that they have not been promoted to the Cabinet level and find difficulty in getting along with their superiors.

Quarles wanted to become Defense secretary when Charles E. Wilson resigned. But President Eisenhower bypassed him and selected Neil H. McElroy for the job.

Now, Quarles as the No. 2 man in the Defense department, is bearing the brunt of congressional criticism of the U. S. lag in the missile race. Friends say he will quit within a few weeks.

Herter reportedly was brought into the State department with the understanding that he was being groomed to succeed Secretary John Foster Dulles and could step into the Cabinet post shortly.

However, Dulles shows no signs of being ready to bow out and the latest rumors are that he and Herter aren't getting along at all.

So, it is said, the former Massachusetts governor also is ready to quit.

QUARLES QUARRELS—Quarles is a man who lives up to his name.

He has had many brushes with important Pentagon officials during his rise to power in the defense establishment, most notably with the chief defense budget officer.

Quarles' latest scrap is with the Air Force, which openly defied him and started to establish a space research agency over his objections.

The secretary wanted such an agency to co-ordinate space activities of all the services, not just the Air Force. He is not taking the action lying down and officials say there will be some "head banging" for sure among his former Air Force associates.

How the fight ends may well decide Quarles' future. If the Air Force is allowed to have its way, it just might break the last straw holding Quarles in the Defense establishment.

W.Va. Economy Hit New High During 1957

Nearly All Areas Of Trade Higher

CHARLESTON, Dec. 31 (AP)—The State Chamber of Commerce observed today that West Virginia's over-all 1957 economic activity slightly exceeded 1956 levels which in turn had topped all previous records.

Despite a late downward trend, only three of 20 segments of trade, production and finance covered by the chamber's business index were operating below 1956 levels at the end of this year's first 11 months.

Those were lumber, where output declined 7.6 per cent, or 27,518,000 board feet; cash farm income, down four million dollars and 4.5 per cent; and receipts at the 24 largest post offices, down by one per cent.

Coal, natural gas and electric energy production were showing such scant improvement over 1956 at the end of November that minus signs, the chamber said, might replace plus marks in year-end reports.

Coal output at the end of November exceeded that for 1956's first 11 months by only 1,670,000 tons and might wind up at virtually equal to last year's total reported production of about 152½ million tons.

Crude oil output was up 23,000 barrels, or 1.1 per cent; the value of manufactured products rose 43 million dollars, or 2.3 per cent; and value of construction contract awards was 2.1 per cent and four million dollars higher.

The chamber put the value of building permits issued in the state's 25 largest cities and towns at $16,681,000, or 37.2 per cent higher, for this year's first 11 months.

The dollar volume of sales made by 774 reporting retail stores was up 9.7 per cent; and the state's 95 largest commercial banks increased their checking transactions by 717 million dollars, or 8.8 per cent.

The face value of ordinary life insurance policies sold was reported by the chamber as up $66,916,000, or 33.9 per cent. State treasury receipts from its three major sales tax sources — motor fuel, gross and consumers' — were up 8 per cent, or $7,861,000.

Hampshire Co. Hospital Gets First Federal Funds

ROMNEY — A check for $148,171.90 has been received by George E. Herriott, president of the Hampshire County Hospital fund, for the first contribution of federal funds to be received by Hampshire County for the construction of the new hospital.

The funds expended so far for the construction of the hospital have come from county funds raised by the two bond issues approved by the voters in 1956. Under the regulations of the Hill-Burton Act which makes federal funds available for this type of project, no federal funds are paid until the project is at least 25 per cent complete.

The Hampshire County project reached the 25 per cent completion point about October 1, and by the time the official inspection was made by representatives of the State Department of Health, the project was slightly over 30 per cent complete. The check represents this proportion of the total federal funds which have been allocated for the project.

The State Board of Health at its regular September meeting in Charleston, allocated an additional $49,000 to the Hampshire County project, bringing the total allocation of federal money to a figure slightly in excess of $488,000.

To date, $268,401.38 has been paid out of both the county and federal funds towards the construction of the hospital and for other expenses in connection with the project.

Wheeling Steel Hints At 1958 Price Increase

WHEELING, Dec. 31 (AP)—Board Chairman W. W. Holloway of Wheeling Steel Corp. hinted today that a price increase might be a 1958 possibility.

He said in a statement that although Wheeling anticipates current reduced operations to continue through the early part of the new year, it expects conditions to improve as 1958 progresses.

The inferred possibility of a price increase came in this assertion: "Results of operations for this year have proved conclusively that price increases put into effect in 1957 were wholly inadequate to cover the cost increases."

Holloway said that Wheeling's current period of reduced operation "presents a serious problem because wages, freight rates and the cost of iron ore and most other materials entering into production of steel are still rising."

The company spokesman turned to the national picture to observe that a 1957 production of about 113 million tons would be the steel industry's third largest in history—and that long-range prospects are "good."

"There is ample reason to count 1957 as a good year for Wheeling Steel Corp.," he said, "despite the lower market demand in the last few months."

The current downward adjustment in steel was attributed to an impact of inventory accumulation and inventory liquidation by the industry's customers.

The inventory liquidation, Holloway predicted, can be expected to continue into early 1958 with some improvement anticipated. He explained:

"Steel always reflects the trend of consuming industries and so is more of a thermometer than a barometer which would give an advance indication of a change in economic climate."

Holloway foresaw an upcoming year of labor peace because of a three-year, no-strike agreement signed earlier in 1957, and cited major improvements at Wheeling plants in Benwood, and at Steubenville and Yorkville, Ohio.

Keyser Guard To Be Reduced

KEYSER—The National Guard unit in Keyser, Battery C, 201st Armored Field Artillery Battalion, has been given verbal notification by the adjutant general's office the unit will be returned to reduced strength effective early in January. The reduction comes as part of a national cut by the Army.

Captain Henry E. Wilt, commanding officer of the Keyser unit, said that the body is one of the few National Guard sections in the country that was authorized for full strength by the Department of Defense and National Guard Bureau.

The over strength in the unit will be reduced by transfer to inactive National Guard, release and honorable discharge, or entry into active duty by the individual concerned, according to Warrant Officer Robert L. Brummage, unit personnel administrator.

The Keyser National Guard was recently issued a gold certificate for superior performance at the summer camp at Camp Breckinridge, Kentucky.

Captain Wilt attributed the superior rating to the fact that the unit operated with full strength in organization and equipment. Six howitzer sections were used. He said that the economy cut will give the unit a waiting list for new recruits who can only be enlisted into the body when some enlisted member has been discharged.

Voters' Actions Dominated Municipal Affairs In 1957

It wasn't an election year but developments in municipal affairs during 1957.

Members of the official family, City Hall sources and observers selected the voters' petition for a referendum on a proposed $500,000 urban development bond issue as the top municipal occurrence of the year. The city had resolved to sell the bonds in May but a petition by voters and a subsequent ruling in Allegany County Circuit Court made a referendum on the issue mandatory. Had no petition been filed within 40 days after the issue was proposed, a referendum would not have been necessary.

A vote on the issue is still pending. And along the same line, voters rejected a proposal to increase the city's tax limitation from $1.25 to $1.50. The city wanted the extra 25 cents as a "cushion" for operating expenses and to give a wage increase to employees. After the plan was rejected, no wage increase was granted. The city said approval of the limitation increase did not mean the entire 25 cents would be applied to the tax rate but many in the opposition camp believed that to be the case. In fact, it became most popularly known as a move for "a 25-cent tax increase."

These two issues and the completion of the $2,000,000 sewage treatment plant in South End led the opinion polls. The sewage plant was dedicated December 6 and is a major step in clearing up pollution of the Potomac River, an improvement to the community's health and an invitation to new industry.

Some opposition arose to the sewage treatment fee based on 75 per cent of the minimum rate charged for water but it was mostly on an individual basis and not organized.

Like the average wage earner and housewife, the city watched its pennies, too, with the picture presenting a marked contrast.

While the financial status improved debtwise, there was no additional revenue to improve services or increase them. For the first time in three years, Cumberland is eligible to be restored to good standing by many financial sources where secur-

Veteran Of Navy Enlists In Army

A Navy veteran with over two years of service has enlisted in the Army for three years, according to M/Sgt. Wesley Hartley, local recruiter.

Maynard L. Cowgill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer R. Cowgill, 213 Bedford Street, will be sent to Fort Knox, Ky., for training and later will be assigned to an ordnance unit.

Sgt. Hartley said the recruiting office will be closed today and tomorrow for the New Year's holiday. The next group to go to Fairmont, W. Va., for physical examinations will depart Thursday.

Wilkinson Protests Gas Mileage Bills

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson yesterday made a strong protest against payment of the gasoline mileage bills submitted to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners by five assessors and the two top officials of the Assessing Department.

The bills for gasoline mileage for the month of December were as follows:

Somerville Nicholson, supervisor of assessments, $75.36; William H. Lemmert, assistant supervisor, $74.96; Francis J. Plummer, $75.12; W. Edward Eichner, $75.04 and David E. Kirk, $75.04. The last three men are assessors. Commissioner Wilkinson charged that Lemmert (who assumed been the custom in the past to his post December 21 "has not pay them after approval. Wilkinson retorted that the bills should be filled out properly. Commissioner James Orr sided with Wilkinson in the "debate" which followed.

Commissioner William A. Wilkinson said that the bills must be approved by Nicholson as head of the department and that it has no jurisdiction in private housing.

The thirty-eighth annual basketball game of the Western Maryland Interscholastic League will get under way Friday with lid-lifters set for Lonaconing, Mt. Savage and Westernport.

Allegany won 21 titles outright and shared another championship in the past 37 years. Fort Hill has finished on top five times. Coach Walter L. Bowers, retired, turned out 19 championship teams at Campobello. "Bobby" Cavanaugh, now coaching for the 30th year, has had seven winners at Fort Hill and Penn Avenue.

Friday's opening games with current records of the teams and officials are as follows:

SPORTS GRILL

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK, Dec. 31 (INS)—The crystal ball slowly turns and peering deep into 1958 we see . . . Ohio State walloping Oregon in the Rose Bowl . . . Ole Miss upsetting Texas in the Sugar Bowl . . . Oklahoma with its hands full edging Duke in the Orange Bowl . . . and Navy topping Rice in a thriller in the Cotton Bowl . . .

We see Notre Dame going unbeaten next fall to win the national championship and the New York Giants beating the Detroit Lions for the pro title . . .

Meanwhile, we note the Montreal Canadiens trimming the New York Rangers in the final series for the Stanley Cup, emblematic of world supremacy in hockey . . .

Yes, that looks like Jewel's Reward winning the Kentucky Derby, and unless our eyes deceive us, that is Calumet's Kentucky Pride copping the Preakness and Nadir taking the Belmont . . .

The handicap division will be terrific with Bold Ruler, Gallant Man and General Duke beating one another . . .

The trotters and pacers will continue to draw record gates, and if that isn't Arden Homestead's great colt, Sharpshooter, winning the Hambletonian there must be something wrong with our eyesight . . .

There's Referee Ruby Goldstein stepping in to save Sugar Ray Robinson from further punishment as Carmen Basilio retains his middleweight title . . .

Robinson's legs have failed him and he's just an old guy going through the motions . . .

And there's Floyd Patterson carrying Pat McMurtry for a few rounds before belting him out in what will laughingly be called a heavyweight title fight . . .

There's Dave Sime equaling the world records for the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and Bob Gutowski pole vaulting 16 feet, the first man in history to reach that altitude . . .

Things are a little blurred here but we seem to see Dick Mayer winning the Masters, Doug Ford the Tam O'Shanter and Dow Finsterwald the Open. (Ed note: This prediction is not guaranteed) . . .

That's Don Carter again proving himself greatest of the bowlers, and we clearly see Barry MacKay beating Mel Anderson of Australia for the national tennis title . . .

We see (and this takes a lot of seeing) the White Sox winning the AL pennant but losing to the Los Angeles Dodgers in the world series.

And swimmers of both sexes will have set 84 new world records by the time an American yacht successfully defends the America's Cup.

380,000 To Attend Seven Football Bowl Games Today

Navy Remains One-Point Choice Over Rice In Cotton Bowl Tilt

Ohio State Favored By 20 Over Oregon In The Rose Bowl

By JACK HAND
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
America goes on a football binge Wednesday with about 380,000 fans filling seven bowls from coast to coast and many more following the action on radio and television.

Ohio State, Navy, Oklahoma and Mississippi are favored in the major bowls that will attract about 85 per cent of the fans. All of these bowls will receive network radio-TV coverage.

The 4th Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., finds Big Ten champ Ohio State (8-1) a 20-point choice over Oregon (7-3), the Pacific Coast Conference co-champion, but more than 100,000 fans are expected.

Navy Conceded Edge

Navy (8-1-1) remains a one-point favorite over Rice (7-3), the Southwest Conference king, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas where a sellout crowd of 75,504 is assured. The Middles suffered a tough blow in the injury to Tony Stremic, a valuable blocker and fine middle guard on defense.

The Orange Bowl in Miami counts on 76,100 to watch Oklahoma (9-1), the perennial Big Eight titleholder, face Duke (6-2-2), a 10-point underdog.

At New Orleans' Sugar Bowl, Mississippi (8-1-1), a fine team with a strong line, is given a three-point edge over Texas (6-3-1) in a game to be seen by 80,000.

The Orange at 1:30 p.m. (EST) and the Cotton at 4:15 p.m. (EST) will be covered by CBS. The Sugar at 1:45 p.m. (EST) and the Rose at 4:45 p.m. (EST) will be beamed by NBC.

Drake (7-1) and Louisville (8-1) collide at El Paso, Tex., before 15,000 in the Sun Bowl, and Texas Southern (7-3) faces Prairie View (6-3) in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston where 13,000 are expected. In the only night game, the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., presents Mississippi Southern (8-1) and East Texas State (8-1), before 13,000.

Bucks Have Power

Coach Woody Hayes' Ohio State team banks heavily on its "up the middle" power game with fullback Bob White doing the heavy work.

Jack Crabtree, a quarterback who specializes in the short pass, is the key to the Oregon backfield which packs plenty of speed but no depth. During the regular season, Oregon bowed to Pitt, Washington and Oregon State.

Stremic's injury was a real blow to Navy's hopes against Rice. However, Navy still has quarterback Tom Forrestal to pass and halfback Ned Oldham to run, plus the tricky defense that held the opposition to only 19 points in its last four games.

Duke Is 10-Point Underdog In Game With Oklahomans

Rice has done even better than Navy, holding the enemy to a total of 13 points in its last four games while closing with a rush to win the conference crown. All-America King Hill, the quarterback who was the pros' bonus draft pick, is the man to watch although Coach Jess Neely claims Frank Ryan, his understudy, is just as good.

Sooner Face Duke

Coach Bud Wilkinson, whose Oklahoma Sooners finally were stopped by Notre Dame during the regular season, may try to surprise Duke with some new plays in the Orange Bowl. Quarterback Carl Dodd who has been out with a sprained ankle, is ready to start along with Clendon Thomas, the halfback ace, and All-America guard Bill Krisher.

There have been hints that Duke, usually on the conservative side, also may open up with some new material. They were beaten by Georgia Tech and North Carolina but tied North Carolina State and Navy.

Mississippi has averaged more than 300 yards a game rushing behind its strong line.

Walt Fondren, the millionaire quarterback, operates the Texas attack and does the punting.

Fort Hill And

to Fort Hill's football team. Coach Henrietta Snyder's Fort Hill girls, unbeaten in basketball since 1954, made it 36 in a row by taking the measure of nine opponents. Lou Baker's St. Luke's Lutheran cagers made it 25-0 in taking it all in the Sunday School League and St. Michael's finished with an 18-0 mark in the Fearer Memorial League at Frostburg. In small fry baseball, Barrelville belted its way through the Pen-Mar Little League to 20 consecutive victories.

The men's golf team of the Cumberland Country Club missed a perfect season by the margin of a single point when North Fork snapped the locals' two-year, 11-match winning streak at Johnstown, Pa., 20-19. The triple C met Frostburg for the first time, swept both matches, and wound up the season with an 8-1 mark.

Fairgo Handle Is Up

In the annual sports car racing program sponsored by the Lions Club, Carroll Shelby, the Texan, beat New Jersey's Walter Hansgen, 1956 victor, in the featured event at the airport. Mrs. Maurice Glick, of Baltimore, on her fourth try, won the 7th annual invitational golf tourney at the CCC, gained a leg on the Cumberland Brewing Company's Old Export Bowl, and wagering at the Cumberland Fair Association's second 12-day race meeting that wound up in October was the highest average in four years.

The handle was $2,322,115 and the average $193,509. The 1958 dates Ok'd are September 15 to 27.

Valley and Allegany shared the WMI Basketball League title with 8-2 records. Homer Brooks' Frederick High Cadets whipped Allegany in the district tourney by one point, 57-56, and then went on to win the state Class A crown at College Park. Valley High kept Allegany county in the picture by bagging state Class B honors. In another one-point decision affair, Ronnie Young of Valley, edged Kenny Johnson of Allegany, 199-198, for the WMI scoring title.

Title To Deaf School

Over in the Potomac Valley Conference, West Virginia School for the Deaf of Romney won its first title in the 17-school cage circuit with a 9-1 record and had the loop's high average player in Gene Smith who posted a 25.6 mark.

SS. Peter and Paul quint, coached by Bob Mattingly won Catholic Youth League honors for the fourth year in a row and St. Patrick's, with Rev. Arthur Bastress at the helm, took the football title in the same circuit.

Valley made it a "double" for Coach John C. Meyers by romping off with the WMI Soccer League championship for the fifth straight year, winding up the fourth successive campaign without a loss.

Outdoor Club Is Best

Skipper Cecil Grimes' Outdoor Club was the class of the Rocking Chair Softball League, Corrieganville bagged the playoff crown in the county circuit while James "Casey" Allen's Hermans, sponsored by the Queen City Brewing Company, swept through the City League championship and also captured the sixth Western Maryland Tournament.

Prof. Hahn's Fort Hill thinclads outclassed the field in the Allegany County Senior High track and field meet for the eleventh consecutive year and Fort Hill also finished first in the county junior high meeting, edging Creston by two points.

Major John J. Cavanaugh's Fort Hill diamond aggregation sewed up the County League and Frostburg, who took the Allegany city championships and Johnny Paugh's Moorefield High Yellow-jackets retained P.V.C. honors with a 10-record, extending their victory skein to 32 games in that loop since 1954.

In the Hot Stove League the Elks won the pennant but the Rotary Club annexed playoff honors while Jim Wilson's Red Sox dominated the Dapper Dan Little League.

Midland Legion Scores

Midland Post ended the 4-year reign of Fort Cumberland Post in former local boxers also passed American Legion junior baseball. Curtis Hickie's Ellerslie tossers in the 1940s, was fatally injured in an auto mishap and Gene Dombrosky, local scrapper of the 1930s, was shot and killed in Baltimore.

ants finished first in the Pen-Mar loop but Barrelville's Old Experts were playoff champs for the second straight year.

Frostburg teams dominated the men and women's shuffleboard circuits. Joseph W. Hemmis, Cumberland's motorcycle hill-climbing ace, set new records at Pittsburgh, Washington and York, Pa., and came in third in the national event at Muskegon, Mich. New records were established in Allegany, Garrett and Washington counties during the 6-day deer season with a total bag of 1,608 bucks, trapshooting practically did a fadeout and pro and amateur boxing drew a blank for the sixth consecutive year.

Paid attendance at the annual Thanksgiving Day football game between Allegany and Fort Hill was 4,794, the lowest in 13 years.

The new champion in tennis came upon the scene in the person of Dr. Robert Novak, of Frostburg, who took the Allegany county singles crown. This was the last tourney promoted by Lorenzo "Red" Van Sant, 77, who was found dead at his home about a month later.

Col. Russler Dies

Death also claimed the popular Col. Nelson W. Russler, 78, who headed Cumberland teams in the Georges Creek, Blue Ridge and Middle Atlantic Leagues, and Carlton L. "Funny" Newnam, 58, American Legion boxing and dance promoter of the 1920s. Two former local boxers also passed on. Jimmy Folk, who boxed here in the 1940s, was fatally injured in an auto mishap and Gene Dombrosky, local scrapper of the 1930s, was shot and killed in Baltimore.

Social Security Offers Advice

The local office of the Social Security Administration yesterday offered advice to those persons who plan to retire this month and file for social security benefits.

James E. Robertson, manager of the local office, said those persons who plan to retire should bring the W-2 tax form they receive from their employer when they contact the SS office.

He said they also may bring their 1957 income tax return if it has been completed. These will be used to verify a person's earnings if they were employed by someone else.

Persons who were self-employed should have a completed Schedule C, profit and loss from business, cancelled checks or any other evidence of payment of the social security tax.

Mr. Robertson said the retirement claims could be processed much more quickly if persons have proof of their earnings for 1957.

AFL-CIO Council Told To Expel Ousted Unions

Bakers Affiliate With New Unit

The Western Maryland Bakery Council, AFL-CIO, has received directives to expel two AFL-CIO ousted unions from its ranks and to aid in the organization of a new union set up to replace a third.

A local labor leader directed a "double cross" charge at the head of the AFL-CIO for the speed with which the orders were issued.

The directive on the third union arrived after local bakery workers voted to affiliate with the new union set up by the AFL-CIO.

Leo H. Mease, financial secretary-treasurer, said Local 246, Bakery Workers here, has voted to change its affiliation from the ousted Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union of America to the American Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union AFL-CIO.

Vote Unanimous

He said the action was taken by unanimous vote of the 130-member union at a meeting in the Allegany Labor Temple December 28.

The new AFL-CIO Bakery Workers unit, headed by Ernest C. Yander, is notifying national, state and area AFL-CIO bodies of its affiliation action.

Mr. Mease said the Cumberland local was chartered as Local 246 in 1902 and expects to keep the same number in the union chartered by the AFL-CIO on December 12.

The ousted Bakery Workers union was chartered by the AFL in 1896, Mr. Mease recalled.

The three directives were received by C. E. Stutzman, secretary of the AFL-CIO Central Body and vice president of Local 453, Teamsters Unions, one of the three labor organizations recently ousted by the national AFL-CIO. Charges Double Cross

Mr. Stutzman expressed surprise over the receipt of the letters from George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO.

He said "Meany gave us the double cross" and explained that the AFL-CIO national convention that the body would take no action soon at the state and local level.

The letters, Mr. Stutzman said, will be presented to the Executive Board of the Western Maryland Labor Council.

The Board is scheduled to meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Allegany Labor Temple, according to F. Patrick Allender, president, who declined to predict the action of the board.

May Be Referred

Informed labor sources said it is possible that the letters may be turned over to a committee for study and report. Such a move was termed likely because action is still pending by the Maryland State and District of Columbia AFL-CIO Council, which has been ordered to expel Teamster Union locals.

Expulsion of the locals would mean the automatic ouster of officials and delegates who would no longer be able to qualify for office.

Mr. Stutzman, who is one of five Teamster officials on the state AFL-CIO, said he has received no word of any meetings planned by the state unit.

Area labor officials said it is possible the affected labor leaders might retain their posts in state and local councils through honorary labor cards issued by other unions.

Mr. Stutzman said he has been offered honorary cards but has not accepted.

Will Cooperate

In a letter to the Teamster ouster, Mr. Meany cited Article 4, Section 6 of the AFL-CIO constitution, saying local Teamster unions are not eligible to state and local AFL-CIO bodies and ordered expulsion.

A second letter said the charter of the Laundry Workers International Union and Cleaning and Dye House Workers was revoked.

A third letter reported the revocation of the charter of the

Mrs. M. Upham, Former Local Principal, Dies

Mrs. Margaret (Spier) Upham, a Cumberland native who was active in the development of the Allegany County educational system, died Monday night at her home at 60 Elmcrest Avenue, Providence, R. I.

She was a daughter of the late Andrew and Marion (Stewart) Spier. She graduated from Wilberham Academy, Wilberham, Mass., and Goucher College in Baltimore.

Following the death of her husband, Alfred Elwyn Upham, the head of the Maryland Training School, in 1914, Mrs. Upham returned to Cumberland where she joined the faculty of Allegany High School on Greene Street.

After serving there for three years she was appointed principal of the West Side School on Cumberland Street and remained as its principal on Paca Street until her retirement.

She was a member of the Maryland State Teachers Association and the Allegany County Elementary Principals Association. She and O. B. Boughton were the leading proponents of the teachers' pension plan.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Jean Howes of Providence and Mrs. Evelyn V. Ritzley of Washington, D. C.; one grandson, Alfred V. Howes of Providence; and one sister, Miss Anna Spier of Cumberland.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland.

The body will arrive at the George Funeral Home tomorrow where friends will be received from 7 to 9 p. m. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Yule Light Thefts Continue

Complaints received in the past 24 hours by city police of vandalism and theft of outdoor Christmas decorations brought to 30 the number of these complaints that local authorities have investigated this month.

The complaints began to pour into Police Headquarters after December 15 and have been received almost daily since, officers said, noting that the damaged and stolen decorations probably amount to several hundreds of dollars.

Some of the cases have been solved with the arrests of numerous youths but many are still being investigated. Officers said probably many other instances of thefts and damage to decorations have not been reported.

Meanwhile, police said several small girls were caught shoplifting in one of the local stores on Baltimore Street.

Detective E. Gordon Hite said the girls, picked up on two different instances of shoplifting, were 7, 9, 10 and 12 years old. All four were turned over to their parents until further disposition of the cases can be made.

Woman, 82, Is Injured When Struck By Car

An 82-year-old woman was struck by an automobile on Maryland Avenue shortly after 3 p. m. yesterday and was taken to Memorial Hospital with a broken right leg.

Admitted to the hospital was Mrs. Elizabeth Retzer of 710 Maryland Avenue. She was reported in "good" condition last night with small abrasions and lacerations, in addition to the fractured leg.

The accident occurred near the woman's home when she apparently walked into the side of an automobile driven by James M. Dickinson, 21, of 735 Maryland Avenue. Witnesses said she was dragged several feet by the car before it stopped.

Officer Fred O. Daum of the Cumberland Police Department investigated.

Officer Daum also investigated a three-car collision at the intersection of Decatur and Frederick streets about 1:30 p. m. yesterday.

The officer said a car driven by Mrs. Doris May Abe, 29, of 24 Waverly Terrace, entered Frederick Street from Decatur and struck a vehicle operated by James Edward Truka, 40, of 1817 Bedford Street, shoving the Truka automobile into another car parked along the street.

Officer Daum said considerable damage was done to the three vehicles. A charge of failure to stop at a stop sign was placed against Mrs. Abe.

In another accident which occurred at about 1:30 p. m. also two cars collided at the intersection of Baltimore Avenue and Willowbrook Road.

Officer J. Carl Stouffer investigated and said a vehicle operated by Edgar A. Isner, Route 2, city, failed to stop at the intersection and collided with another car driven by Jack Waugh, Route 1, Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

Officer Stouffer said Isner was driving northwest on Willowbrook and entered the intersection, striking Waugh's car which was headed south on Baltimore Pike toward Central Avenue.

Mrs. Isner, traveling with her husband, was shaken up in the collision and was treated at Memorial Hospital. Officer Stouffer said he placed a charge of failure to stop at an intersection against Isner and a reckless driving charge against Waugh.

Senator Bean Urges Public To Curb Taxes

Must Resist Demand For More Services

The president of the West Virginia Senate told members of the Cumberland Rotary and Cumberland Lions Club at a joint meeting at Central YMCA yesterday that the public must begin treating city, county, state and federal budgets the same way they treat a family budget and keep them balanced.

State Senator Ralph J. Bean of Moorefield told the two clubs that legislators are caught in the squeeze between pressure groups on one side demanding more and more public service and other groups demanding a reduction in taxes.

The senator said he is opposed to higher taxes as a general principle because more government spending leads to greater inflation. However, there are certain pressure groups which are always demanding greater public services without realizing that more public funds must be appropriated in order to provide those services.

Favors Inventory

Senator Bean called upon his audience and the public in general at the beginning of 1958 to conduct an inventory of public indebtedness. An aroused public in a democracy can stop this trend for more and more public services and public spending. He observed that the American Revolution was brought about in part by protest against Great Britain's tax policies.

He urged every person to make as his New Year's resolution a promise to do nothing to destroy this nation.

In the course of his talk on common problems facing both Maryland and West Virginia, Senator Bean cited a number of statistics on income received by the two states from various taxes.

The man from Moorefield said that Maryland's income tax provides $70 million a year whereas West Virginia has no such tax. The gross sales tax, West Virginia's chief revenue producer, yields $42.75 million a year.

On the state level, the property tax has almost vanished in West Virginia, providing only $250,000 in 1957 as against about $9 million in Maryland.

Racing revenue provides much more income in Maryland than in West Virginia, Senator Bean observed. The Free State gets about $9.4 million from this source and West Virginia only $2.4 million. Despite restrictive state stores for the sale of whiskey, West Virginia's revenue from alcoholic beverages taxes amounts to about $10 million compared with Maryland's $8 million.

Gasoline Revenue

Maryland's income from gasoline taxes is much higher than West Virginia although the rate is the same.

One West Virginia tax which Maryland does not have is a general licensing fee on chain stores which produces about $6.6 million a year. Retail sales tax now produces $45 million a year in Maryland and $31 million in West Virginia.

Concerning sales taxes, Senator Bean said one economics expert has predicted that within a few years all states will be collecting a four or five per cent sales tax as this is one of the few major sources of revenue left for them because of the federal dominance in income taxes.

Soft Drink Tax

West Virginia's soft drink tax, which Maryland does not have, brings in about $3.2 million a year and Senator Bean said all of these funds are earmarked for the new West Virginia-University Medical School. Total cost of the new school is about $29 million and about $9 million more needs to be collected to pay for this establishment. Thereafter, the soft drink tax revenue will go for

Man Falsely Buying Ads From Firms

Unknown Solicitor Uses VFW Name

City police say an unidentified man is soliciting unauthorized ads from business firms in Cumberland under pretense that the material will be used for Henry Hart Post 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Lt. James E. Van said Guy Smith, an official at the VFW, reported the local veterans organization was approached by the man who sought to make a contract with the VFW to solicit the ads on a percentage basis.

Mr. Smith told police the contract was refused but that since the conference several days ago local business establishments have been approached and have bought ads from the man.

A local bakery and a beauty salon both paid $10 for ads from the unknown solicitor, Lt. Van stated, receiving receipts for the money signed with a stamped signature. The police lieutenant said the stamped signature was obviously faked.

Lt. Van said a description of the man placed his age at about 45 or 50 years, 5 feet 11 inches tall, 160 pounds with a large body frame and stooped shoulders. He had dark, greying hair and was wearing a dark checked coat and cap, the lieutenant stated.

2,729 Get Marriage Licenses

Some 2,729 marriage licenses were issued during 1957 in the office of Joseph E. Boden, clerk of Allegany County Circuit Court.

The number represented a decline of about eight-tenths of one per cent from the 1956 level of 2,751.

Oddly, 1957 started as if it would far outdistance the previous year in the number of marriage licenses as the monthly totals were higher than in 1956 for each of the first five months. However, a sort of recession in marriage licenses followed and only in two of the final seven months were more licenses issued in 1957 than in the corresponding period a year earlier.

The 1957 total was higher than the 1954 total of 2,634 but below the 2,817 issued in 1955.

Following are the monthly totals for the past two years with the 1956 figure first in each case:

January—164 and 192; February—155 and 181; March—177 and 215; April—224 and 231; May—226 and 232; June—309 and 298; July—299 and 267; August—274 and 281; September—225 and 220; October—247 and 185; November—215 and 219; December—227 and 208.

SRC Asks County To Review Area Road Program

Information on the status of Maryland's road construction program has been received by the Board of Allegany County Commissioners, according to James Orr, president.

He said prints forwarded by Norman M. Pritchett, SRC chief engineer, list the sufficiency ratings of roads listed in the 12-year program, plus proposals for additions and the transfer of certain roads from the state to the county system.

Mr. Orr said the County Commissioners were asked to study the road program, which has been extended from 12 to 15 years to coincide with the interstate road system, and to make recommendations to the State Roads Commission.

Mr. Pritchett offered to send an SRC official here if the county wished a further briefing on the plan, and Mr. Orr said the offer will be accepted.

Prompt action will be taken, Mr. Orr said.

$9 Million Cut From Railway's Assessment

Western Maryland Sought Reduction

KEYSER, Dec. 31 (AP)—For the fourth and fifth times since the early 1940s, the Western Maryland Railway has won circuit court reductions of state assessments of its property for tax purposes.

Circuit Judge Ernest A. See ruled here that the proper assessment for each of 1955 and 1956 should be 9½ million dollars. The Board of Public Works assessment was 13 million for 1955, and 15 million for 1956.

Still pending before Judge See in Mineral County circuit court is another Western Maryland appeal from a 1957 assessment fixed by the Board of Public Works at 12½ million dollars.

One Appeal Upheld

One of the three previous reductions won at the circuit court level was upheld by the State Supreme Court. That was a cut from $11,074,200 to $8,504,200 provided by a Randolph County Circuit Court order in 1941.

But in the only other State Supreme Court action stemming from the railroad's running battle with the board, the appellate judges sustained a board assessment figure of $11,250,000 for 1954.

Despite the pending nature of the circuit court litigation, Western Maryland paid in full tax bills of $237,894 and $272,812 for 1955 and 1956, respectively, based on the Board of Public Works assessments.

The railroad also paid, as of last Oct. 24, a sum of $112,238 representing half of its 1957 bill of $224,475. Judge See said hearing of the 1957 appeal would hinge on whether the state appeals his 1955-56 ruling.

The attorney general's office in Charleston is expected to carry Judge See's latest ruling to the Supreme Court, but no official announcement of intentions yet has been forthcoming.

Most In Mineral County

The Western Maryland appeals in recent years have been brought in circuit court here because the largest proportionate amount of the carrier's West Virginia holdings lies in Mineral County.

The railroad argued here that the true and actual value of its property in West Virginia did not exceed $9,258,225 in 1956.

Records in the utility tax division of the State Auditor's Office in Charleston showed that the railroad also paid its 1954 taxes in full pending the outcome of legal action that year.

The company explained that it wanted to take advantage of a 2½ per cent discount public utilities receive for one-time remittances.

At that time, there also was an agreement between railroad and state that any reductions in assessment and tax bill won in court would be credited in computation of 1955 taxes.

Road Contracts Are Awarded

CHARLESTON, Dec. 31 (AP)—The Road Commission awarded contracts today for seven federal-aid highway projects after approval by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads of low bids received Dec. 17.

The projects by counties, with low bids on each:

Grant — construction of Pansy bridge on U. S. 220, three reinforced concrete T-beam spans on concrete substructure; Clower & Michael, Romney, $49,509.

Grant — grading, draining, basing, asphaltic concrete paving of 4,016 miles of W. Va. 90 between Henry and Bayard; V. P. Stickley, Burlington, $472,921.

Hardy — construction of three-span, reinforced concrete T-beam bridge on concrete substructure over Anderson Run on U. S. 220; Clower & Michael $36,173.

Hardy — construction of same type bridge over Mudlick Run on U. S. 220; R. B. Gay & Co., Roanoke, Va., $67,433.

Stock Market Outlook

41. The "bloom is off the stock market." We will have rallies and reactions during 1958, but the broad trend will be downward. This is the first time for many years that I have said this in my annual report. There is too much talk about missiles, bombs, and fallout.

42. While the stock market has been going up during the past few years, the bond market has been going down. The reverse will take place during 1958. While the stock market is going down, the bond market will begin to creep upward. This especially applies to tax-free bonds, the purchase of which I strongly recommend.

43. Good cumulative non-call.

Cold War To Continue, But Lower Cost Of Living Predicted For U.S. In 1958

BY ROGER W. BABSON

Next to the Russian situation, President Eisenhower's condition will be of supreme importance. What its influence upon Russia will be, nobody knows. It probably will not affect general business. I believe that for some time our President has not been making important policies and much to his disappointment, his recommendations have been largely ignored. The major effect of the President's condition will be political. Those close to the President, for both friendship and political reasons, are hoping for his recovery both in health and in memory. Others in charge of the Republican Party, anxious about his possible incapacitation or death, would like to see him resign and drop out of the picture in order to give Vice President Nixon a good buildup in the hope of re-electing the Republican Party again in 1960.

For evident reasons, the Democrats are hoping that Vice President Nixon will not have an opportunity to function as President before the coming election. Therefore, President Eisenhower's condition could greatly influence the political situation during the next few years. This would cause uncertainty and retard large corporate expansion programs as well as consumer buying.

1. I cannot believe that Russia wants World War III; in fact, I am confident that Russia will go to some lengths to avoid World War III. In case of any retaliation by us, Russia would suffer great losses. Moreover, if Russia has any hope of conquering our country, she certainly wishes to preserve our cities, industries, and other valuable assets. Russia has land enough now; it is our industries which Russia wants. This also applies to England and Western Europe as well as the United States. Therefore my forecasts for 1958 are as follows:

1. The present cold war will be intensified during 1958. This will increase fear of war, which could greatly affect retail sales.

2. Russian policy will be aimed at securing control of the United States, the countries of Western Europe, and the Middle East by infiltration.

3. The cold war costs the United States billions of dollars annually. This can be paid for only through increased taxes or inflation, or by the adoption of the Hoover Commission's recommendations for radical economy.

4. Profits will be further squeezed during 1958, as a result of higher costs and pressure for lower prices.

5. Competition at all levels will increase during 1958.

6. Only more advertising by both manufacturers and retailers will enable them to keep up their present gross volume during 1958.

7. Failures will increase in 1958. These will apply mostly to small concerns, but some one of the big companies in the Dow-Jones Averages may collapse.

8. Predicting a lower total volume of business for 1958, compared with 1957, I forecast a moderately lower trend, on average, for wholesale commodity prices. Expect a gradual decrease in the cost-of-living during 1958.

9. Wise labor leaders will hesitate to fight for higher wages, but will try for shorter hours, pensions, and other "fringes."

10. European countries will have less to spend for American goods, and foreign trade will decline in 1958 compared with 1957.

Money Outlook

11. Money will continue to be "tight" during 1958 for new borrowers who have not established a satisfactory line of credit.

12. Owing to declining demands for funds, interest rates will decline in 1958.

13. Concerns with large numbers of employees will receive first consideration both by banks and by the government.

14. For fear of World War III, and due to declining business, many plans for expansion of plants will be postponed.

15. Money rates may be "fixed" during 1958 by an economic dictator.

16. Lower money rates will make it easier to sell long-term bonds during 1958.

17. The supply of non-taxable state, municipal, turnpike, and other "Authority" bonds will increase during 1958.

18. I forecast higher prices for many corporation bonds.

19. Investors will continue, during 1958, to switch from stocks to attractive bond issues; fear of war will rule all markets.

20. Bankers will fear that the government—as a part of the cold war—will appoint a dictator to direct the policies of all national banks, the leading stock exchanges, and investment deal-

Labor Outlook

21. There will be a general fear that the government—as a part of the cold war—will fix wages in many industries and prevent further increases during 1958.

22. The revelations brought about by the investigation of the Teamsters Union may lead to important new labor legislation.

23. The Taft-Hartley Law will not be repealed in 1958, and may be made more severe. Much, however, will depend upon President Eisenhower's physical and mental condition.

24. Congressional attempt will be made to eliminate the present exemption of labor unions from anti-monopoly laws.

25. 1958 will be a sad year for labor leaders. I forecast that there will be an increase of unemployment during 1958.
